Shiawassee Arts Center Presents

One-day Eco/Photo Excursions 2012

Sunday, January 15th; Sunday, October 14th

with

For beginners and advanced amateurs alike, these special one-day excursions combine informative group instruction with tutored photography sessions. From fascinating close-ups to dramatic landscapes, every budding nature photographer is offered an opportunity to learn more about their own camera while taking their photography to the next level. All participants can improve their photography and naturalist skills by learning from the professional team of Mark S. Carlson and Bob Grzesiak, during these very educational, one-day eco/photo excursions.
