Located in Curwood Castle Park overlooking the Shiawassee River, the Arts Center serves as a showcase for the work of area, statewide and national artists. It also serves as a meeting place, classroom and workshop area and arts information center for Shiawassee County residents.

Established in 1972, the Shiawassee Arts Council moved into the Shiawassee Arts Center in 1989.

In 2008 the Arts Center underwent a major expansion allowing for additional gallery and classroom space. The new River Gallery and Cottonwood Terrace overlooking a beautiful view of the river, are unique locations for special events, fundraisers and private parties.

The Shiawassee Arts Center is a non-profit (501(c)3) organization and all proceeds benefit children and adults in our community.

The Arts Council thanks the members, sponsors, volunteers, artists and gallery visitors for their support. Membership is open to all interested persons and includes full member benefits.

Woodard Furniture Exhibit Comes To Shiawassee Arts Center

The Shiawassee Arts Center is presenting a special exhibition June 1 - July 29, 2012, celebrating three centuries of Woodard furniture entitled "The Worth of Woodard." Since 1866, high quality Woodard furniture has been manufactured in Owosso. Long recognized for its historical significance and contribution to the American furniture industry, Woodard Furniture is in the permanent collections of the Smithsonian and the Cooper-Hewitt Museums.
